Spring Semester and Summer Session 2012
This page contains some notes for the current semester. You can find the notes from previous semesters in our archive on the bottom of the page.

Dr. Donald Whittington Exhibits Historical Items of AMERICA in Denver
In a departmental effort, Donald Whittington has been active in research for over ten years. He submitted a thesis to his Doctoral Examining Committee in the Business Department and was featured in the Summer Session 2012 schedule. He is currently awarded a grant to research the history of the native American people in his field. Donald Whittington will be presenting his research at the Summer Session 2012 event. For more information about the event, please visit https://www.donaldwhittington.org

Department Awards 2012-2013 Scholarship Recipients
Congratulations to the following students who were recently awarded scholarships for 2012-2013:
- Emily F. Smith: Memorial Foundation Scholarship
- John B. Anderson: History Scholarship

For more information about departmental scholarships, please visit our Scholarship page.

HandPrint Security Group (HSG) Competition Winners
Congratulations to the following students in the Security Group (HSG) Competition held on April 28:
- First Place (3rd-year): 'HandPrint'
- Second Place: 'PrintHand'
- Third Place: 'ClickHand'

For more information about the HandPrint Security Group, please visit their website at https://handprintsecurity.org

CS 140 Undergraduate Participation in CRC 2012
For 30 years, CS 140 has held the California Undergraduate Research and Creativity (CRC) Showcase, the largest campuswide undergraduate program on the West Coast, that spotlights the research and creative activities. We are proud to recognize our undergraduate students who participated in the 2012 CRC Showcase on April 7.
- Laura Adams: Implementing a System to Aid an Automotive Communication in Vehicle
- Benjamin Littrell: The Use of Neural Networks of Database Compression
- Kayo Anfinsen, Lijie Xu, and Wael Moez, System based on ML, machine learning approach
- Elisa Nocetti, The 2-3 Logic Gates

For more information about CRC, please visit their website at https://www.cs140.org

CS 121 Project: Ethical Foraging WhoElse Would Monitor Air and Science Exhibition
In the Department of Computer Science, we are proud to represent our latest research in the field of Computer Science. We are excited to announce our participation in the 2012 Project: Ethical Foraging WhoElse Would Monitor Air and Science Exhibition with our computer generated images that represent nature. A summary and description of the computer and paper art work can be accessed at our website: https://www.cs121.org

Updates to EPISODES Include New Members for 2012
The Department is pleased to announce the new members of Update EPISODES, those who were introduced at a meeting on April 30. EPISODES is the student-run publication for the department and its members are selected based on their contributions to the field of Computer Science. To see a list of past participants, please visit our website at https://www.episodes.org

Congratulations to the new members of Update EPISODES, who were recently introduced at a meeting on April 30. EPISODES is the student-run publication for the department and its members are selected based on their contributions to the field of Computer Science. To see a list of past participants, please visit our website at https://www.episodes.org

Security Lab Fall Annual AEOC Competition
The Security lab will host its first Annual AEOC Competition on September 21st, at the Metro Lab. C2073. Students Network Infrastructure Penetration Evaluation (C2073) is a capture the Flag bug hunting tournament designed such that any information released would be weakness, bug hunting knowledge. Teams must use the code of the lab's security expert to find and assess the vulnerability in the lab's network. The first team to find the vulnerability will gain the most points and receive a prize. The competition will be open to all MSU students. The competition is open to all MSU students. The competition is open to all MSU students. The competition is open to all MSU students. The competition is open to all MSU students.

Department Website Updates
The department website has been updated with new information. The website has been optimized for better accessibility and user experience. We encourage you to explore the new content and provide your feedback.

Chris Miltos and Iosifos Jakub Amidst AEOC Graduation Awards
Congratulations to the recipients of the AEOC graduation awards for 2012. The AEOC awards recognize outstanding achievements in the field of Computer Science. The recipients have been selected based on their contributions to the field.

Fall 2011 Graduate Degrees Awarded
The Computer Science Department congratulates the following students on the completion of their graduate degrees in Fall 2011:
- Doctor of Philosophy
- Master of Science
- Master of Engineering

Fall 2012 Graduate Degrees Awarded
The Computer Science Department congratulates the following students on the completion of their graduate degrees in Fall 2012:
- Doctor of Philosophy
- Master of Science
- Master of Engineering